14 Defendant(s).
15

Case No. 2:18-cv-00063-RFB-NJK

ORDER

16 Pending before the Court is the parties' stipulated protective order (Docket No. 9), which the 17 Court approved to facilitate discovery in this case. This order reminds counsel that there is a 18 presumption of public access to judicial files and records. A party seeking to file a confidential 19 document under seal must file a motion to seal and must comply with the Ninth Circuit's directives in 20 Kamakana v. City and County of Honolulu, 447 F.3d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006).

21 The Court has adopted electronic filing procedures. Attorneys must file documents under seal
22 using the Court's electronic filing procedures. See Local Rule IA 10-5. Papers filed with the Court 23 under seal must be accompanied with a concurrently-filed motion for leave to file those documents
24 under seal. See Local Rule IA 10-5(a).

25 The Court has approved the blanket protective order to facilitate discovery exchanges. But there 26 has been no showing, and the Court has not found, that any specific documents are secret or 27 confidential. The parties have not provided specific facts supported by declarations or concrete 28 examples to establish that a protective order is required to protect any specific trade secret or other

1 confidential information pursuant to Rule 26(c) or that disclosure would cause an identifiable and 2 significant harm. The Ninth Circuit has held that there is a presumption of public access to judicial files 3 and records, and that parties seeking to maintain the confidentiality of documents attached to 4 nondispositive motions must show good cause exists to overcome the presumption of public access. See 5 Kamakana 447 F.3d at 1179. Parties seeking to maintain the secrecy of documents attached to 6 dispositive motions must show compelling reasons sufficient to overcome the presumption of public 7 access. Id. at 1180. All motions to seal must address the applicable standard and explain why that 8 standard has been met. The fact that a court has entered a blanket stipulated protective order and that 9 a party has designated a document as confidential pursuant to that protective order does not, standing
10 alone, establish sufficient grounds to seal a filed document. See Foltz v. State Farm Mut. Auto. Ins. Co., 11 331 F.3d 1122, 1133 (9th Cir. 2003); see also Beckman Indus., Inc. v. Int'l Ins. Co., 966 F.2d 470, 476
12 (9th Cir. 1992).

13 If the sole ground for a motion to seal is that the opposing party (or non-party) has designated 14 a document as subject to protection pursuant to the stipulated protective order, the movant must notify 15 the opposing party (or non-party) at least seven days prior to filing the designated document. The 16 designating party must then make a good faith determination if the relevant standard for sealing is met.
17 To the extent the designating party does not believe the relevant standard for sealing can be met, it shall 18 indicate that the document may be filed publicly no later than four days after receiving notice of the 19 intended filing. To the extent the designating party believes the relevant standard for sealing can be met, 20 it shall provide a declaration supporting that assertion no later than four days after receiving notice of 21 the intended filing. The filing party shall then attach that declaration to its motion to seal the designated 22 material. If the designating party fails to provide such a declaration in support of the motion to seal, the 23 filing party shall file a motion to seal so indicating and the Court may order the document filed in the 24 public record.¹

25
26 ¹ In the event of an emergency motion, the above procedures shall not apply. Instead, the movant
27 shall file a motion to seal and the designating party shall file a declaration in support of that motion to seal

IT IS ORDERED that counsel shall comply with the requirements of Local Rule IA 10-5, the Ninth Circuit's decision in Kamakana, 447 F.3d 1172, and the procedures outlined above, with respect to any documents filed under seal. To the extent any aspect of the stipulated protective order may conflict with this order or Local Rule IA 10-5, that aspect of the stipulated protective order is hereby superseded with this order.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

DATED: March 16, 2018

NANCY J. KOPPE
United States Magistrate Judge

within three days of its filing. If the designating party fails to timely file such a declaration, the Court may order the document filed in the public record.
